

PROGRAMME: All sessions at Finnland Institut, except July 11 evening session at Collegium Hungaricum

TUESDAY, JULY 11

WELCOME: 9.00-9.40 Chris Skowroński, Sami Pihlström, Laura Hirvi, Maja Niestrój, Karolina Knopik

SESSION ONE: 9.45-11.15

Chair: Sami Pihlström

JACQUELYN KEGLEY: “Pragmatism and the ‘Other Kant,’ Kant as Public Intellectual and Political Theorist”

TOM ROCKMORE: “Kant between Plato and Pragmatism”

Coffee break

SESSION TWO: 11.45-13.15

Chair: Shannon Sullivan

SAMI PIHLSTRÖM: “Jamesian Pragmatism, Rortyan Ironism, and Kantian Antitheodicy”

ALEXANDER KREMER: “Rorty on Kant’s Ethics”

Lunch (speakers invited for free; the cost of the lunch for non-speakers is 10 Euro)

SESSION THREE: 15.15-16.45

Chair: Jacquelyn Kegley

SHANNON SULLIVAN: “Kant and Pragmatist Feminism”

LOGI GUNNARSSON: “Living and Writing Philosophically”

Break - free time

EVENING SESSION at COLLEGIUM HUNGARICUM: 20.00-21.00

Welcome: Chris Skowronski, CHB Director

Chair: Alexander Kremer

JOSEPH MARGOLIS: “Between Pragmatism and Rationalism”

Wine and Pretzel Reception at Collegium Hungaricum: 21.00-22.30

Entrance free for the session and the reception

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12

SESSION ONE: 9.00-11.15

Chair: Giovanni Maddalena

SARIN MARCHETTI: “Kant, James, and Pragmatic Anthropology”

SAMUEL KAHN: “Kant, the practical postulates and Clifford’s principle”

HEMMO LAIHO: “Kant’s Universalism and Pragmatism”

Coffee break

SESSION TWO: 11.45-13.15

Chair: Phillip McReynolds

NÚRIA SARA MIRA BORONAT: “Peace, Bread and Ideas for a Cosmopolitan World: Addams’s Unknown Pragmatist Legacy Today”

GIOVANNI MADDALENA: “Anti-Kantianism as a Necessary Characteristic of Pragmatism”

Lunch (speakers invited for free; the cost of the lunch for non-speakers 10 Euro)

SESSION THREE: 15.15-16.45

Chair: Logi Gunnarsson

PHILLIP McREYNOLDS: “Does Pragmatism Need a Concept of Autonomy?”

MATTHEW CRIPPEN: “Pragmatic Evolutions of the Kantian: From the Mental to the Bodily”

19.00- dinner/meeting possible for those who want to get together

Others can have time for sightseeing

THURSDAY, JULY 13

SESSION ONE: 9.00-11.15

Chair: Tom Rockmore

HENRIK RYDENFELT: "The Practical Purport of Transcendental Idealism"

AGNIESZKA HENSOLDT: "Kant, Peirce, Dewey: on the Supremacy of Practice over Theory"

BRENDAN HOGAN: "Imagination Between Social Science and Utopia"

Coffee break

SESSION TWO: 11.45-13.15

Chair: Sarin Marchetti

STANISLAW KIJACZKO: "Kant's Pragmatic Teleology"

MICHELA BELLA: "James and Kant on Empirical Psychology"

Lunch (speakers invited for free; the cost of the lunch for non-speakers is 10 Euro)

SESSION THREE: 14.45-16.15

Chair: Henrik Rydenfelt

GUIDO BAGGIO: "Transcendental Schematism and Quasi-transcendental Semiotics"

CHRIS SKOWRONSKI: "Does the Pragmatist Reflection on Ethical AND Aesthetic Values Need the Kantian Axiology for its (Pragmatist) Future Developments?"

ENDING AND FINAL COMMENT: 16.15-16.45

SAMI PIHLSTRÖM and CHRIS SKOWRONSKI

The End

For those who want and can -- getting together at some restaurant/pub possible