

Student Seminars Day Programme MONDAY, JULY 10. All sessions at Finnland Institut

WELCOME: 9.00-9.40

CHRIS SKOWRONSKI, SAMI PIHLSTRÖM, LAURA HIRVI, MAJA NIESTROJ, KAROLINA KNOPIK

SESSION ONE: 9.45-11.15

Claudia Cristali (London): “The Real in Perception and how to get closer to it. Peirce’s experimental psychology 1869-1885 in the context of his logic of science”

Ivan Gospodinov (Edinburgh): “From communicative to educative rationality: Dewey’s Enlightenment project”

Ruben Omar Mantella, (Barcelona): “John Dewey’s Moral Philosophy and Kant’s Two Imperatives”

Coffee break

SESSION TWO: 11.45-13.15

Sarah Wellan (Potsdam): “Metaphysical Pluralism: James and the Neo-Pragmatists”

Maja Niestroj (Berlin/Frankfurt-Oder): “Kant and Sexual Ethics”

Gabriele Aleandri (Roma): “Kantian and Pragmatist Perspectives on the Limits of Human Action: a Comparison.”

Lunch (speakers and instructors invited for free; the cost of the lunch for all other is 10 Euro)

SESSION THREE: 14.45-16.15

Mehmet Sadik Bektas (Opole University): “Reading Kant in the Time of Wars: For Constant Peace, is War Required?”

Dorian Durer (Haute Alsace): "TBA"

Luka Nikolić (Podgorica): “Kant Between (poli)Ethics and Politics”

AMONG THE INSTRUCTORS COMMENTING THE SPEAKERS WILL BE: Chris Skowronski (Opole/Berlin); Sami Pihlström (Helsinki), Núria Sara Miras Boronat (Barcelona), Matteo Santarelli (Rome), Alex Kremer (Szeged), Maja Niestroj (Berlin/Frankfurt-Oder).